The recall of Mayor Hardie, Alderman Reid and Commissioner George, of Eschbridge, is arousing considerable interest. Ground for recall in all cases is "inefficiency."

217 MINERS ENTOMBED

Explosion at Hillcrest Mine Causes Death of Upwards of 200 Men

The greatest disaster in the mining history of Alberta, and probably of Canada, occurred this morning at Hillcrest, when over two hundred lives were snuffed out by an explosion in the mine of the Hillcrest Collieries, Limited.

The explosion occurred about 9.15 a.m. and was of such force as practically disabled the entire three slopes of the mine. The force of air through the mine mouth following the explosion almost completely demolished the engine house, from which the engineer had a miraculous escape.

Rescue corps were on the scene in a short time, together with all the doctors and nurses available.

Despatches were sent to Lethbridge and Fernie, as well as to all the mining camps in the district for assistance, who in a short time were on the scene with all the apparatus at their immediate disposal.

Volunteer gangs of rescuers were organized under the superintendence of Manager Brown and Mr. Smith, and the work of rescuing was begun.

From first reports it was thought that most of the entombed men would be brought to the surface, but entering the mine revealed the fact that very few would be brought out alive.

During the forenoon only eleven miners were brought out. Of these seven were dead when found or else succumbed after reaching the open air. Only four were rescued alive in the first two hours of rescue work.

At noon it appeared as though all hope for the entombed men would be abandoned, as those being brought out at that time were all dead, some broken up and disfigured beyond recognition.

It is expected that it will require several days before all the bodies will be recovered.

Today, the scenes around the mine are heartrending. Thousands of people line the hillsides and occupy every place of vantage near the mine mouth. Women and children are terror-stricken and broken-hearted. Most every home in Hillcrest is affected and bereft of a husband or son, and all through the Pass homes are bereft of their loved ones and breadwinners.

Some of the volunteers who entered the mine to endeavor to reach the entombed brother miners, came near losing their lives. One stalwart miner entered and after reaching a crippled victim was obliged to return without the object of his quest, being overcome by gases.

Examples of extreme heroism were in evidence on all sides. Men volunteered to make a second effort, even after returning in a semi-conscious condition.

The heroic efforts of the nurses are deserving of greater commendation than words can give. During the whole day they stood by and lent their services while hope for life lasted.

Among the dead already brought out, the body of John Maher, of Blairmore, Thomas Taylor, Frederick Bennett and Thomas Bardeley, of Hillcrest, have been identified.

Among those entombed are two Adam boys, brothers of Mrs. J. A. McDonald, of Blairmore, and John Hood, brother of Mrs. John McPhail.

One man named Link, who was working in the mine with two other men, was forced out by the explosion without sustaining any serious injury. He did not know how he reached the outside. His chums disappeared in the debris and were seen no more.

Up to the time of going to press it is impossible to secure a list of the names of those entombed, but it is known that Superintendent J. S. Quigley is among the number.

The mine at Hillcrest had been idle for a couple of days, and men had just resumed work this morning. The real cause of the accident may never be known. The Hillcrest mine has been one of the best mines in The Pass, and very few accidents have occurred during its years of operation.

About 222 men are known to have entered the mine. Of this number about twelve came out alive.

Undertakers are on hand and as caskets arrive the bodies will be prepared for burial.

Hughie Cameron, of Burmie, monopolized the streets of Blairmore with his automobile on Tuesday. Hughie's car was run with the famous Crows' Nest natural gas.

L. H. Putnam and J. E. Gillie attended the district court at Macleod on Tuesday, where the case of Cooney versus McCoubrey et al came up for hearing. Judgment in the case was reserved. Mr. Putnam also handled several cases for Macleod & Gray.

All three men, Afanasy Sokoloff, Joe Smith and Max Manelik, have been found guilty of the murder of paymaster John Wilson at Exshaw, and sentenced to hang at Macleod on August the 26th. In delivering their verdict the jury asked for mercy in the case of Manelik.

A meeting will be held at Bellevue at 8.30 p.m. on Sunday, June 28th, for the purpose of considering the formation of a branch lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows. All Oddfellows are asked to attend.

TAKE PLENTY OF TIME TO EAT

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

The Creation of the "Knocker" Explained

After God had finished making the rattlesnake, the toad, and the vampire, he had some awful substance left with which he made a knocker. A knocker is a two-legged animal with a corkscrew soul, a water-soggy brain and a combination backbone made of jelly and glue. Where other men have their hearts he carries a tumor or decayed principles. When the knocker comes down the street honest men turn their backs, the angels weep tears in Heaven and the devil shuts the gates of Hell to keep him out.—Exchange.

Bad Disease

A well known railroad president on that occasion to visit a small station down to enjoy the excellent fishing near by. He carefully concealed his identity and was consequently snubbed by a "leading citizen" with whom he attempted to strike up a conversation on the banks of the stream. When leaving he secured the services of an aged black to carry his things from the hotel to the depot. There the departing visitor caught sight of the man who had given him the cold shoulder. "Poor fellow!" he said, smiling sympathetically. "Suffering from an aggravated attack of egotism." "But so?" said Uncle Silas in surprise, following his gaze. "He lived here, more than twenty years ago. An nephew known afore, dat he wuz a'lin'."—Argonaut.

Eleven miles southeast of London, Kent, not many years ago were discovered the catamounts of the ancient druids, which are now being visited by sightseers and are lighted, for part at least, by electric lights. Over fifty miles of chambers, cut in the chalk cliffs, have already been explored. The druids lived in these catamounts when attacked by their northern enemies, and here they buried many of their dead. The stone in which the human remains were made is still to be seen, and also the well, from which water is drawn to this day.

Judge—Tha's why didn't you shout at the man?
Chauffeur—I did, your honor, but he didn't seem to hear me.
Judge—Why didn't you shake your speed rather than run him down?
Chauffeur—Well, now, you've got one on me, Judge, I never thought of that—Mother's Magazine.

The Ruling Passion
It is not hard to keep from being fazed, if you are only sufficiently in earnest about it. In an article in the "Wide World Magazine," Mr. Malcolm Savage Treacher tells the story of a German mountain climber who did not forget to be economical, even in the midst of deadly peril.
A party was crossing a glacier on the slope of Mont Blanc, when one of the travellers called to the others to stop and listen. Strange cries came from the ice beneath their feet.
"Someone has fallen into a crevasse!" exclaimed one of the party.
"His groans seem to indicate that he is already beyond help."
"We must do what we can, in any case," responded one of the guides; and he began a long and perilous descent into what proved to be the bosom of a concealed crevasse. At the bottom they found the poor German who had fallen. He was, however, quite unhurt, sitting comfortably upon a bench of ice.
"We've come to save you," said one of the guides.
"You save me," answered the gentleman, quite tranquilly. "How do you know I want to be saved?"
"Because you called to us for aid," said one of the bewildered guides.
"Perhaps I did," replied the German, "perhaps I didn't. You came, anyhow. Now would you take to rescue me?"
And before he would allow the guides to hitch him to the rope and drag him to the surface, he compelled them to set down in writing the exact amount they would be paid for the performance of their life-saving duty. He was a business man, whatever anyone could say about him; and moreover, he knew the guides of Switzerland.

To Restore Garden of Eden
Lying between the Euphrates and the Tigris rivers is today a desert waste, the soil of which is so barren that it passed into a proverb; Mesopotamia, the land was called, and of a German mountain climber who did not forget to be economical, even in the midst of deadly peril.
The original home of the human race, where the first man and woman were brought the waters of the Tigris to the fields of grain, two thousand years ago. But those and other ancient works perished and were swallowed up in the shifting sands long centuries since. Recently, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine, in an article, under the direction of an ancient English engineer, the Turkish government has built a dam, or barrage, across the Euphrates, 16 miles above Babylon, as the first step in a vast scheme of irrigation to redeem half a million acres, transforming the desert into a garden spot.
Population of the World
According to the Bureau of Universal Statistics, the population of the world in 1912 was slightly over 1,900,000,000, of which there were in Asia 828,000,000; in Europe 484,000,000; in Africa 189,000,000; in America 187,000,000; and in Oceania 57,000,000.

Dust Causes Asthma—Even a little speck too small to see will lead to asthma, which so words can describe. The walls of the breathing tubes contract and it seems as if the very life must pass. From this condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy brings the user to perfect rest and health. It relieves the passages and normal breathing is firmly established again. Hundreds of testimonials received annually prove its effectiveness.

The U.S. Press on Panama Tolls
Out of 135 leading newspapers of the United States on the World's Exchange list, we find 107 supporting President Wilson and only twenty-eight opposing him. We believe that this cleavage of newspaper sentiment is fairly representative of the cleavage of popular sentiment. This sentiment shows that the east, the middle west, and the south are overwhelmingly against granting ship subsidies to the Panama Canal.

BANISH PIMPLES AND ERUPTIONS
In the Spring Most People Need a Tonic Medicine

One of the surest signs that the blood in out of order is the pimples, unsightly eruptions and eczema that come frequently with the change from winter to spring. These prove that the long indoor life of winter has had its effect upon the blood, and that a tonic medicine is needed to put it right. Indeed, there are few people who do not need a tonic at this season. But blood does not merely show itself in disfiguring eruptions. To a same condition is due attacks of rheumatism and lumbago; the sharp stabbing pains of sciatica and neuralgia; poor appetite and a desire to avoid exertion. You cannot cure these troubles by the use of purgative medicines; you need a tonic, and a tonic only, and among all medicines there is none can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their tonic, life-giving, nerve-restoring powers. Every dose of this medicine makes new, rich blood which drives out impurities, stimulates every organ and brings a feeling of new health and energy to weak, tired, ailing men, women and children. If you are out of sorts give this medicine a trial and see how quickly it will restore the appetite, revive drooping spirits, and fill your veins with new, health-giving blood.

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Forbes-Robertson's Rival
"Amateur Actor—How did you like my Hamlet last night?"
Critics—Like it? My dear fellow, I can honestly say that in the opening scene of the fourth act you were as good as Forbes-Robertson.
Amateur Actor—But I didn't appear in that scene.
Critics—No; neither does Forbes-Robertson.

A western editor injected a touch of sarcasm in his comment on a robbery in which he was personally "interested."
"Burglars entered our home last night.
To the everlasting shame of the community for whose welfare we have labored, be it said, they got nothing."

Stop to think of it, we see that all of these ten or twenty millions of dollars spent in oil leases and oil stocks have produced a real revenue of about one hundred dollars. There were a few barrels of oil sold from the Diagonal well the other day. Of course the money went into circulation, and makes some men work. But money merely circulating doesn't mean so much, and the work it stimulates may be useless work after all. Unless this money gets into the hands of people who not merely spend it but use it for some real production, it may not help us out of the money stringency. If the idle money of savers gets accumulated into the pockets of a few promoters of oil companies there's not much permanent gain to the community.
For a time, these promoters may keep spending and thus keep a demand for iron goods all down the line, from storekeeper to farmer or miner. That helps some, but we'd prefer to see them using it all to pump up oil. If we're looking for real wealth, for new produce, we'll find the genuine article in a good oil well.—Curmangay Sun.

Oil Shares

We have no desire to appear to be "knocking" any legitimate business or to take a pessimistic view of any new line of activity; but we feel in duty bound once more to warn people from speculating in oil stocks. To the person with plenty of money, we have no advice to give. If he chooses to take a chance with some of his cash, it is none of our business; but we do feel called upon to say those persons who are taking their small savings, or the money that ought to go to pay living expenses, and buying oil shares, with the hope of selling them again at an advance, that they are doing an exceedingly foolish thing.—Victoria Colonist.

What a Man Owes To His Town

What does a man owe to his town?
He owes this: that to himself and the town—to OWN a part of it. A town is small a lot, if he can't own a big one. A forty foot front if he can do no better.
But he should OWN a part of the town.
That gives him a stake in it.
The man who owns a home in town never calls his town "IT." When he speaks of it, whether it be London, Taihuit, New York, Waikiki, he says "WE."
—"OUR" town. And he has a right to.
He is a stockholder, a partner.
More than that, when he owns a piece of ground, farm or town lot, he has a stake in the EARTH. He is a citizen of the universe. His property extends from the brimstone out to the stars. Even now, they are disputing concerning the right of an airship to sail through the air over a man's house without the owners permission. The very thought is enough to make men feel chafed. And with good cause, too.

A man who owns his home begins to study his ticket six weeks before election day. He scrutinizes every name on it, and looks up the candidate's record. It is the man who can tie up his real and personal property in a handkerchief that shuts his eyes and votes the ticket the boss gives him without unfolding it.

A man owes it to his town to boost it, in public on all occasions and at all times. The correction of its failings and faults are for the privacy of the home circle. A man who would think his job on the front steps of the Court House ought to be whipped out of town. The citizen who welcomes the stranger by telling him what a rotten town government we have, via a corrupt set of officials mangle the town, how the town lags behind the age in all matters of progress and development, that it is a dead town, and will be, so long as certain men rule it, is an undesirable citizen.

When a man tells you that what his town needs is half a dozen fire-clerk funerals, he may be correct. But HE should be the first to be buried.

A man owes it to his own town to show its advantages from the houseposts.
The entire registry list should be the Promotion Committee. If necessary put binders on the visitor, and let him see only what you want him to see. When he asks you what chance a poor man has in the town let him show him, a poor man is the only man who has a chance.
And that is no joke. The truly kind humblest homes of the men who came here with a capital of working hands and thinking brains. Tell him the story of the man who began with day wages.

Tell him you think there should be a law compelling the poor man to give the rich man a handicap when they come into competition with each other so as to give the rich man a chance. It is penniless boys like John Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, Phil Armour, and that class, who backed the rich men's sons, and their poverty-laden days, close off the earth.

interesting event when, at 6 o'clock last evening, their daughter Olive was united in marriage to Rev. F. S. McCall, principal of Alberta college, 101st street.

While Mendelssohn's Wedding March was being played by Rev. W. E. Mac-Niven of McDougall Methodist church, the bride entered the drawing room with her father. She was wearing white brocade satin with trimmings of pearls and diamonds, and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Florence Todd, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, her dress being of pink brocade satin with a tulle of shadow lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

A dainty little flower girl in a pink silk frock completed the bridal procession.

Mr. F. Quance, B.A., formerly of Alberta college, South Side, supported the groom, and the ceremony was performed by Dr. J. H. Riddell, principal of Alberta college.

Only intimate friends of the bride and groom were included among the guests, and following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs.
McCall were the recipients of the congratulations and good wishes of the company.

The wedding breakfast was served in buffet style, the table decorated with pink carnations and ferns and centred with the bride's cake. The health of the bride was proposed by Dr. J. H. Riddell, the groom responding in a few happy words, and congratulatory speeches were made by Mr. Quance, Prof. Jackson of Alberta college, Dr. H. R. Smith, Mr.
Keele, Mr. Grindley and Mr. Congdon.

Mr. and Mrs. McCall left on the 6 o'clock train for Winnipeg and Toronto, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning to Edmonton early in August.

Among the many laudable presents received were two framed oil paintings presented by the faculty of the North side Alberta college and an electric chain lamp and stand in token of the students of the same college.—Edmonton

Edmonton Minister Raps Police Magistrate

During an exhaustive study of moral conditions and their causes, the Rev. W. L. Armstrong, D.D., at McDougall church, Edmonton, recently, delved into a new phase of the subject and caused somewhat a sensation by rapping Magistrate Masse over the knuckles.
He charged that heinous crimes that have been committed in the city, and that the people responsible for those crimes had got off with comparative ease.

The preacher hailed with delight the coming investigation. "We have seen vice on streets," he said.
"We have heard strange things.
And thank God, there is going to be what I trust will be a very sincere effort to probe to the bottom the moral condition of the city. It may be some people will get hurt.
Then let them get hurt, if they are guilty. It may be some people will be shown up. Then let them be shown up. The good name of this city must be reinstated. It must not stand blurred, as it is today, not only before our own moral conscience, but before the eyes of the world.

Dr. Armstrong selected as his text Isaiah five and twenty: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter."

TAKE PLENTY OF TIME TO EAT

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insulated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

The election of officers of Crow's Nest Encampment No. 8 took place on Wednesday night of last week. Installation will take place at the first meeting in July.

The Coleman baseball stars paid another visit to Blairmore on Wednesday evening and suffered defeat. A good game was witnessed by a large crowd of rooters.

The largest cargo of coal ever taken from a Canadian port was carried out of Sydney harbor last week by the steamer Thelia. The cargo was equivalent to 675 carloads.

Mr. Justice Walsh will preside at the trial of the three men accused of killing Paymaster John Wilson, at Exshaw. The trial commenced at the supreme criminal assizes at Calgary on Tuesday.

The annual sessions of the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, Independent Order of Oddfellows, closed on Saturday last, when a civic dinner was given the delegates by the mayor and aldermen, of Victoria. The convention was the most successful in the history of British Columbia grand lodge. This is their jubilee year, for it is fifty years since the first lodge was opened in British Columbia.

"Bob" Campbell returned to Calgary on Wednesday night, after conferring with the school boards at Bellevue, Hillcrest and Passburg. It will be remembered that the single-tax system was introduced last year, and these smaller towns are strongly objecting to it. Mr. Campbell's mission was to confer with the school boards and endeavor to adjust matters satisfactorily.

The latest from the oil fields is that a new flow was struck at the Monarch well at 2:16 a.m. yesterday. It is hard to get people to believe that developments are being carried on day and night. Seems as though they are trying to keep pace with some of the boosters we know of who have talked and dreamt for a while week without sleeping.

A little boy named Parsons tumbled from the trap bridge into the river on Sunday and was rescued in the nick of time. Several such accidents have happened from this veritable death trap of late, and some thoughtful men, in the interest of the public, expeditiously destroyed the structure on Sunday. The authorities should see that such structures are never again allowed to be placed across this or any other stream.

It is reported that the Canadian government and the Republic of China are taking steps to make such a treaty as now exists between Canada and Japan. Under this arrangement Japan cannot send more than four hundred of its subjects to this country in a year. Now every Chinese may come who can pay the head tax of $500. It is thought at Ottawa that if this were done, immigrants from India might come under such an agreement. The question of who may or may not come to a country is a difficult one to settle.

An interesting and well attended meeting was held in the mission hall of the Presbyterian church on Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Women's Guild, when Mrs. McKillop, president of the Women's Presbyterials of Alberta, gave an illuminating and instructive address on the comprehensive work of the women's societies of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. A. S. Tod presided, and after the address tea was served to the audience, which included visitors from Coleman, Passburg, Hillcrest, Pincher Creek and Albion, Mich. The good things were served by Mrs. Robert, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. MacKay, Mrs. Jas. Patterson, Mrs. Purvie, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. McNeil, Miss Edmiston and Miss Bannister. Mrs. Muncester, secretary, was present, but Mrs. Williams, the president of the Guild, was unfortunately unable to attend.

We understand that money cannot buy certain claims at Pincher Creek held by a local party. Ring off!

A number of local Oddfellows attended the decoration ceremonies at Coleman on Sunday afternoon, where about seventy members turned out to pay their annual tribute to the dead. The Coleman town band, twenty-pieces strong, turned out with the society and rendered excellent music. The band has just recently been reorganized and has been considerably strengthened by some new and able talent. Their renditions on Sunday called forth the admiration of the public who say that the band has never before been in such excellent condition. Daniel Banks, the bandmaster, deserves every praise for the success attending his efforts, and there is no doubt but that great success will accompany the band under his able tuition and direction.

A. Bower and Jack Johnson went out to South Fork on Sunday to stake off their fish claims.

Letting the Light in Shops and businesses that are illumined by advertising have a vitality and efficiency not possessed by shops and businesses that drape their service and activities with a pall of silence.

Everybody knows that it is in all ways good to let much light into dwellings, factories, shops and stables—into all places where life is and where health and efficiency are desired.

We commend to the merchants of this community the advantages and good results of persistent advertising in our columns, for the public always goes where light is—the public shuns dark places. Light means welcome and confidence.

A WORD TO MERCHANTS

Advertising will go far towards retaining the loyalty of old customers and winning you new ones. Fifty-two advertisements in our columns will prove an excellent salesman—one whose yearly cost to you will be less than what you are now paying to some salesman behind your counter.

Celebration of a Hundred Years of Peace

The movement for celebrating the Hundred Years of Peace between the British Empire and the United States is judging by a circular just issued by the Canadian Peace Centenary Association, taking rapid hold in Canada, Great Britain and the United States.

The general proposals contain four main features, (1) Monuments and other memorials, (2) Thanksgiving Services in the Churches, (3) Educational Propaganda, (4) Festivities. The Circular commends various suggestions regarding the erection of monuments, and states that the matter has been referred to an International Committee.

February 14, 1915, has been selected for Thanksgiving Services in all the churches of the British Empire and the United States. This date is the nearest Sunday to February 17, 1915, the centenary of the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent.

The educational propaganda includes several important features, among which may be mentioned the preparation of a series of pamphlets dealing with the various nations which have made the long peace possible, which it is intended to send to all the schools in Canada. Tablets and maquettes are in course of preparation which will also be sent to the schools for production upon a date to be hereafter arranged. A somewhat unique proposal is that schools in Canada and the United States in places bearing the same name should be invited to exchange Shields. It is intended to arrange for the writing of competitive essays on Anglo-American relations, and provision is being made for Provincial and Dominion prizes.

About 100 centres have been chosen for special celebrations in Canada and strong local committees have been arranged for in a majority of these.

The circular also reports the progress made in Great Britain and the United States and contains a reply received last Christmas from World Rulers to a message sent in connection with the celebration by the American Committee.

The Dominion Government has arranged for an appropriation to meet the preliminary organization expenses. In announcing this the Rt. Hon. R. L. Borden said: "The cause which the Canadian Peace Centenary Association and the corresponding bodies in the United Kingdom and the United States have set before them is one with which we are warmly sympathetic. It is a testimony of humanity that during a century of rapid development, despite the existence of serious international differences and problems, the British Empire and the United States have found wiser and more humane methods of adjusting differences than the arbitrament of war. We welcome the achievement of a century of peace, and hope that it will prove to be but the first century of peace—the forerunner of a long series of tributing into the future as for as human anticipation can trust itself."

The list of members is a most representative one and contains the names of all the Lt. Governors, all the Ministers of Education and nearly all the Premiers in Canada. Among those prominent in this Province, who have identified themselves with this movement may be mentioned—

The President of the Canadian Peace Centenary Association is Sir Edmund Walker, of Toronto, and the Honorary Secretary, Major C. E. Hamilton of Ottawa.

Those desiring copies of the Circular should address Mr. E. H. Scamell, Organizing Secretary, Hope Chambers, Ottawa.

The Owls field day at Coleman on July 1st promises to be a gala event. The programme committee will leave no stone unturned, (and that's saying something). Included in the programme will be various races, including owls, and football, baseball and other games. The Blairmore brass band will utilize the conveying elements of the air during the day, and everyone may rely upon getting their full of Diablos' special.

The ladies of the Catholic Altar Society will give an ice-cream social at Mrs. H. Geb's on Wednesday evening, June 24th. Everybody welcome.
